Deposed Manager of Chicago
National Club.EVERY KNOCK A BOOST
SAYS CUBS' PRESIDENT

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
New York, Feb. 12.—A new development in the baseball situation here today when the Federal league promoters announced that they would not bid for the services of Johnny Evers, deposed manager of the Chicago National league club, Charles H. Weeghman, the leading backer of the Federal league stated that his organization considered Evers under contract with the National league and conforming with the new league's announced policy, would make no effort to obtain Evers.

Weeghman further stated that the fact that Joseph Tinker had arrived here from Chicago in time for an early morning conference with President Gilmore and himself had no bearing on the Evers situation.

"Tinker came to New York," said Weeghman, "at my telegraphic request, bringing some important papers which were needed. He will also endeavor to sign several players with whom we have been negotiating. Evers is not among them and will not be approached. We all are agreed that he is under contract and property of the National league."

Immediately after making this statement, Weeghman, Gilmore and Tinker hurried from their temporary quarters, and it was reported that they were again viewing possible sites for a baseball park in Greater New York in 1915 if not this year. Evers failed to appear in the gathering of managers, players and other followers of baseball. He left his hotel early in the forenoon, and could not be found in the usual gathering places. President Gaffney of the Boston Nationals, reported that he could not find Evers, although he had been on the lookout for him.

The National league and its board of directors were late in entering the executive session and the hour for holding the meeting of the National commission was delayed until 3 p. m. Charles W. Murphy, president of the Cubs, denied that he had any intention of retiring from professional baseball or that he knew of any move to force him out of the National league. He said:

Well Known in Albuquerque
Will Ride on Upholstery Hereafter.

"A. No. 1," the king of hoboes, who has earned his way for many thousands of miles in his day, and who has passed through Albuquerque and been interviewed a considerable number of times in the course of his wanderings, is going to cut it out. A No. 1 has married and settled down; and if his wife has good luck she may be able to counteract the old wanderlust which has taken this unique character over the face of the earth.

The story is told in the following dispatch from Erie, Pa.:

Erie, Pa., Feb. 12.—When friends of "A. No. 1, king of tramps," gathered at his home today for the wedding service, a smile spread over the countenance of the man who has beaten his way over railroads to the extent of nearly a million miles. Then he stepped to the kitchen door of his home and called "Marie!"

A little woman stepped to the door and, taking her by the hand, "A. No. 1" led her forth and introduced her as his wife. He also announced that in order to fool their friends they were married a week ago at St. Peter's Cathedral at 4 a. m.

"A. No. 1" has a handsomely furnished home, having spent nearly $2,000 in fitting it up. "A. No. 1" whose real name is Leon Ray Livingston, married Miss Mary Alice Tronhaski. Among the gifts were two loving cups, one from the Erie Boys' club and the other from the Cambridge Springs chamber of commerce.

"Leon will remain at home now. I'm sure," said the sly bride to a reporter. "You see I'm going to make this home as pleasant that he'll not have a desire to ride railway trucks any more and when we go for a trip on the railroads we'll ride in steel Pullman cars."

COULD SMASH THE BRITISH EMPIRE
IN ONE DAYInterference With Autonomy of Various Parts Sure Means of Destruction Says Secretary for Colonies.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
London, Feb. 12.—"You could easily smash the British empire in a day's debate in parliament, if you tried to interfere with the autonomy granted to its various parts," was the statement of Lewis Harcourt, secretary for the colonies, in parliament today. He was replying to an amendment moved by the labor members in the house of commons to the address in reply to the king's speech.

The labor members had urged that the government withhold its assent to the bill of Premier Louis Botha of South Africa, indemnifying the South African government for its act in deporting the labor leaders after the recent general strike there.

Without defending the action of the Botha government, Mr. Harcourt pointed out that there were in South Africa only 1,250,000 whites to 5,600,000 natives, who, when work had ceased at the mines, became hungry and dangerous. He added:

"That is the sort of volcano on which everyone was sitting in South Africa." Mr. Harcourt declined to advise the king to withhold his assent from the bill if it passed and he declared that such advice would be entirely unjustifiable. He urged the speakers during the debate to be careful of the sensitiveness of the self-governing dominions and to refrain from saying anything derogatory to an autonomous government.

THROW AWAY YOUR EYE-GLASSES!

A FREE PRESCRIPTION

You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye-strain or other eye-weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that there is real help for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully, now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any drug store and get a bottle with warm water, drop in one Optima tablet and allow to dissolve. With this liquid, bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopeless blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Atlantic States and New England to Be Followed by Heavy Snow, Prediction.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Washington, Feb. 12.—The coldest weather of the season enveloped the entire east today and is expected to be succeeded by a snow storm from Texas during the next twenty-four hours. The weather bureau predicted that flakes would be falling over the middle Atlantic and southern New England states by tonight or tomorrow morning.

MERCURY AT BOSTON
DROPS TO 11 BELOW
Boston, Feb. 12.—A quick drop in temperature carried the mercury early today to 11 degrees below zero, the lowest point reached in this city for several years.

ZERO WEATHER HOLDS
NEW ENGLAND IN GRIP
New York, Feb. 12.—Zero weather held all of New England, New York state and northern Pennsylvania in its grip today, temperatures ranging from 27 degrees below zero at Pompey, N. Y., to 1 degree below in this city.

A dense vapor, amounting almost to a fog, hung over the waters in and about the city.

The cold was accompanied by a stinging northwester, which reached the proportions of a gale along the coast, with hourly velocity of 50 miles at Highland Light, Mass.

FIRST HEAVY SNOW OF SEASON IN IOWA

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 12.—The first heavy snow storm of the season is falling throughout central Iowa today, according to reports at the government weather bureau. Below zero temperatures were registered at various points early today, the thermometer in the Des Moines bureau showing four below. At noon six inches of snow had fallen here, and railroad and street car traffic was badly demoralized.

THINKS STEALING
IS STEALINGSenator Hitchcock Expresses Disinclination to Mince
Words in Discussion of New Haven Affairs.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Washington, Feb. 12.—John G. Milburn, counsel for the New York Stock Exchange, finished his statement today before the senate banking committee at its hearing on the trust bill, to regulate stock exchanges.

He objected to the requirement that before the securities of any corporation shall be listed on the stock exchange, the directors shall file with the exchange a statement as to the nature and value of the assets of the corporation, together with other information as to its business, including copies of all contracts and agreements affecting the securities.

He thought it might be proper to require the filing of that information somewhere, but the filing of it ought to have nothing to do with the question of regulating the transmission of stock quotations through the mails. The discussion led into a mention of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad affair. Senator Hitchcock used the word "stealing."

"Don't call it stealing," said Mr. Milburn.

"Oh, let's call things by their right names!" interposed Senator Nelson. "It's the meanest kind of stealing. The man who breaks into my house is an honest man in comparison."

MAXIMUM PRODUCTION AT

Washington, Feb. 12.—A law of maximum production at minimum cost is the governing factor in the trust problems, Secretary Redfish declared today in opening the discussion on pending trust legislation before the chamber of commerce of the United States. Seven other speakers followed the secretary, presenting many sides of the problem.

PREVENT DISCUSSION OF ASIATIC EXCLUSION

Washington, Feb. 12.—Democrats of the house immigration committee today again prevented discussion of Asiatic exclusion bills by remaining away from the meeting. Secretary Elyan had asked the committee not to agitate the question by discussion while diplomatic negotiations were pending. After conference the senate immigration committee decided to report the Burnett general immigration bill, already passed by the house, without delay.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The rivers and harbors appropriation bill, containing a grand total of $43,000,000 for waterway improvements throughout the country, was formally made public today.

DEMOCRAT'S ELECTION
REPUBLICAN VICTORY

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Washington, Feb. 12.—The election of Henry Volinier, Democrat, to the house of representatives from the Second Iowa district was declared by Chairman Frank Woods of the Republican congressional committee 60 days to be in reality a Republican victory. He shows that notwithstanding the appeals of President Wilson, Speaker Clark and Senator Reed, the returns indicate a significant Democratic loss of 6,000 votes and a Pro-republican decrease of 5,500, as compared with last year's figures. There was, he points out, a Republican gain of 2,300 votes over those cast a year ago.
